Course Descriptions:

BT 221: Principles of Biblical Interpretation (3 Credits)

This course introduces and defends the Lutheran notion of the internal clarity of Scripture. Over and against much of the preceding tradition, Lutherans have claimed that no intermediary is required to interpret Scripture: Scripture interprets itself. This understanding is defended as the necessary condition of doing Lutheran theology faithfully. Various exegetical and hermeneutical methodologies are introduced and evaluated in light of theological pre-understandings.

BT 311: Old Testament Theology and History (3 Credits)

This course introduces the Old Testament, giving careful consideration to matters of interpretation and examining theologically the Torah, the Writings, and the Prophets. Old Testament stories are seen against the backdrop of God's law and Gospel. Prerequisite: BT 221.

BT 321: New Testament Theology and History (3 Credits)

This course introduces the New Testament, giving careful consideration to matters of interpretation and examining theologically the Synoptic Gospels, John, Acts, the Pauline Epistles, the Pastoral Epistles, and the Book of Revelation. Prerequisite: BT 221.

EPR 241 Christian Apologetics (3 Credits)

This course is a survey of the nature, objectives, and the importance of Christian apologetics in contemporary culture, with particular emphasis on the application of Christian education and evangelism.

HST 201: Systematic Theology I (3 Credits)

This course explores from a Trinitarian perspective the traditional topics of theology: God, creation, fall, human beings, sin, Christ, justification, atonement, regeneration, Holy Spirit, sanctification, Church, sacraments, eschatology, and vocation. It also introduces the essential distinctions necessary for conducting systematic theology.

HST 321: Luther and His Catechisms (3 Credits)

This course studies the life of Dr. Martin Luther within his historical context. His theological innovations are highlighted and related to our contemporary cultural understandings. Special attention is given to his Large Catechism and Small Catechism, documents that display clearly the depth of his thinking. Students are taught to think theologically in the way of the Lutheran Reformation. Major theological doctrines forged in the Reformation are carefully considered and applied to parish ministry today.

HST 331: Lutheran Reformers and the Book of Concord (3 Credits)

This course examines the classical theological roots of the Lutheran Reformation, its leading figures, and its key documents – especially those collected in the Book of Concord. Students are encouraged to think theologically in the way of the Lutheran Reformation. Major theological doctrines forged in the Reformation are carefully considered in light of how they apply to parish ministry today.

PT 401: Pastoral Theology and Care (3 Credits)

This course investigates the relationship between the office of pastor, the content of historical faith, and concrete issues arising within a context of pastoral counseling. Emphasis is placed upon the methodological and hermeneutical priority of the Law/Gospel approach within a context of care of souls.

PT 411: Lutheran Worship (3 Credits)

This course examines the components of Lutheran corporate worship. Students study the theological foundations of worship. Historical and contemporary issues impacting worship are investigated for the purpose of better understanding the work of God in His Word and Sacrament.

PT 421: Proclaiming God's Word (3 Credits)

The student will learn basic techniques and methods for studying Biblical passages and discerning a suitable message for preaching. In particular, the student will be taught the proper place of both Law and Gospel in Biblical preaching. Various approaches to developing and delivering a sermon will be examined. The students will write and deliver sermons as a crucial part of their development of proclaiming God's word.

HST 301 History of the Early Christian Church (3 Credits)

This course examines the development of the Christian movement from the time of the New Testament to the end of the eighth century, what is widely considered the conclusion of the age of the Church Fathers. Special attention is given to the development and repudiation of classical heresies as well as the decrees and theology of the seven ecumenical church councils. Emphasis is placed on the relevance of Church history for Christian proclamation.

HST 302 History of the Medieval and Reformation Christian Church (3 Credits)

This course examines the Christian movement through developments in both the West and the East from the beginning of the medieval era (ca. 800 A.D.) to the end of the Reformation of the Western Christian Church with the Peace of Westphalia in 1648 A.D. Special attention is given to the physical expansion of Christianity, tension and division between Eastern and Western Christianity, the Crusades, liturgical development, medieval heresies, scholasticism, and mysticism. Much focus is placed on calls for the reform of Western Christianity and the emergence and development of Lutheranism and other Reformation traditions. Emphasis is placed on the relevance of Church history for Christian proclamation.

HST 303 History of the Post-Reformation Christian Church (3 Credits)

This course examines the Christian movement from the beginning of the modern era (ca. 1650 A.D.) to the present. Topics to be considered will be the development of Protestant scholasticism and orthodoxy, the emergence of various forms of Pietism, the age of the Enlightenment, developments in Anglicanism, Roman Catholicism and Eastern Orthodoxy, and Nordic revival movements. Immigration and developments in American Christianity will also be addressed, with a special focus on American Lutheran history. Lastly, missionary movements in the modern era and the emergence of Christianity as a world religion will be discussed. Emphasis is placed on the relevance of Church history for Christian proclamation.
